
IQTool Evaluation Component Conceptual Design – Use Cases

TUC/MUSIC

iQTool Overall Architecture

connection with the Evaluation Component

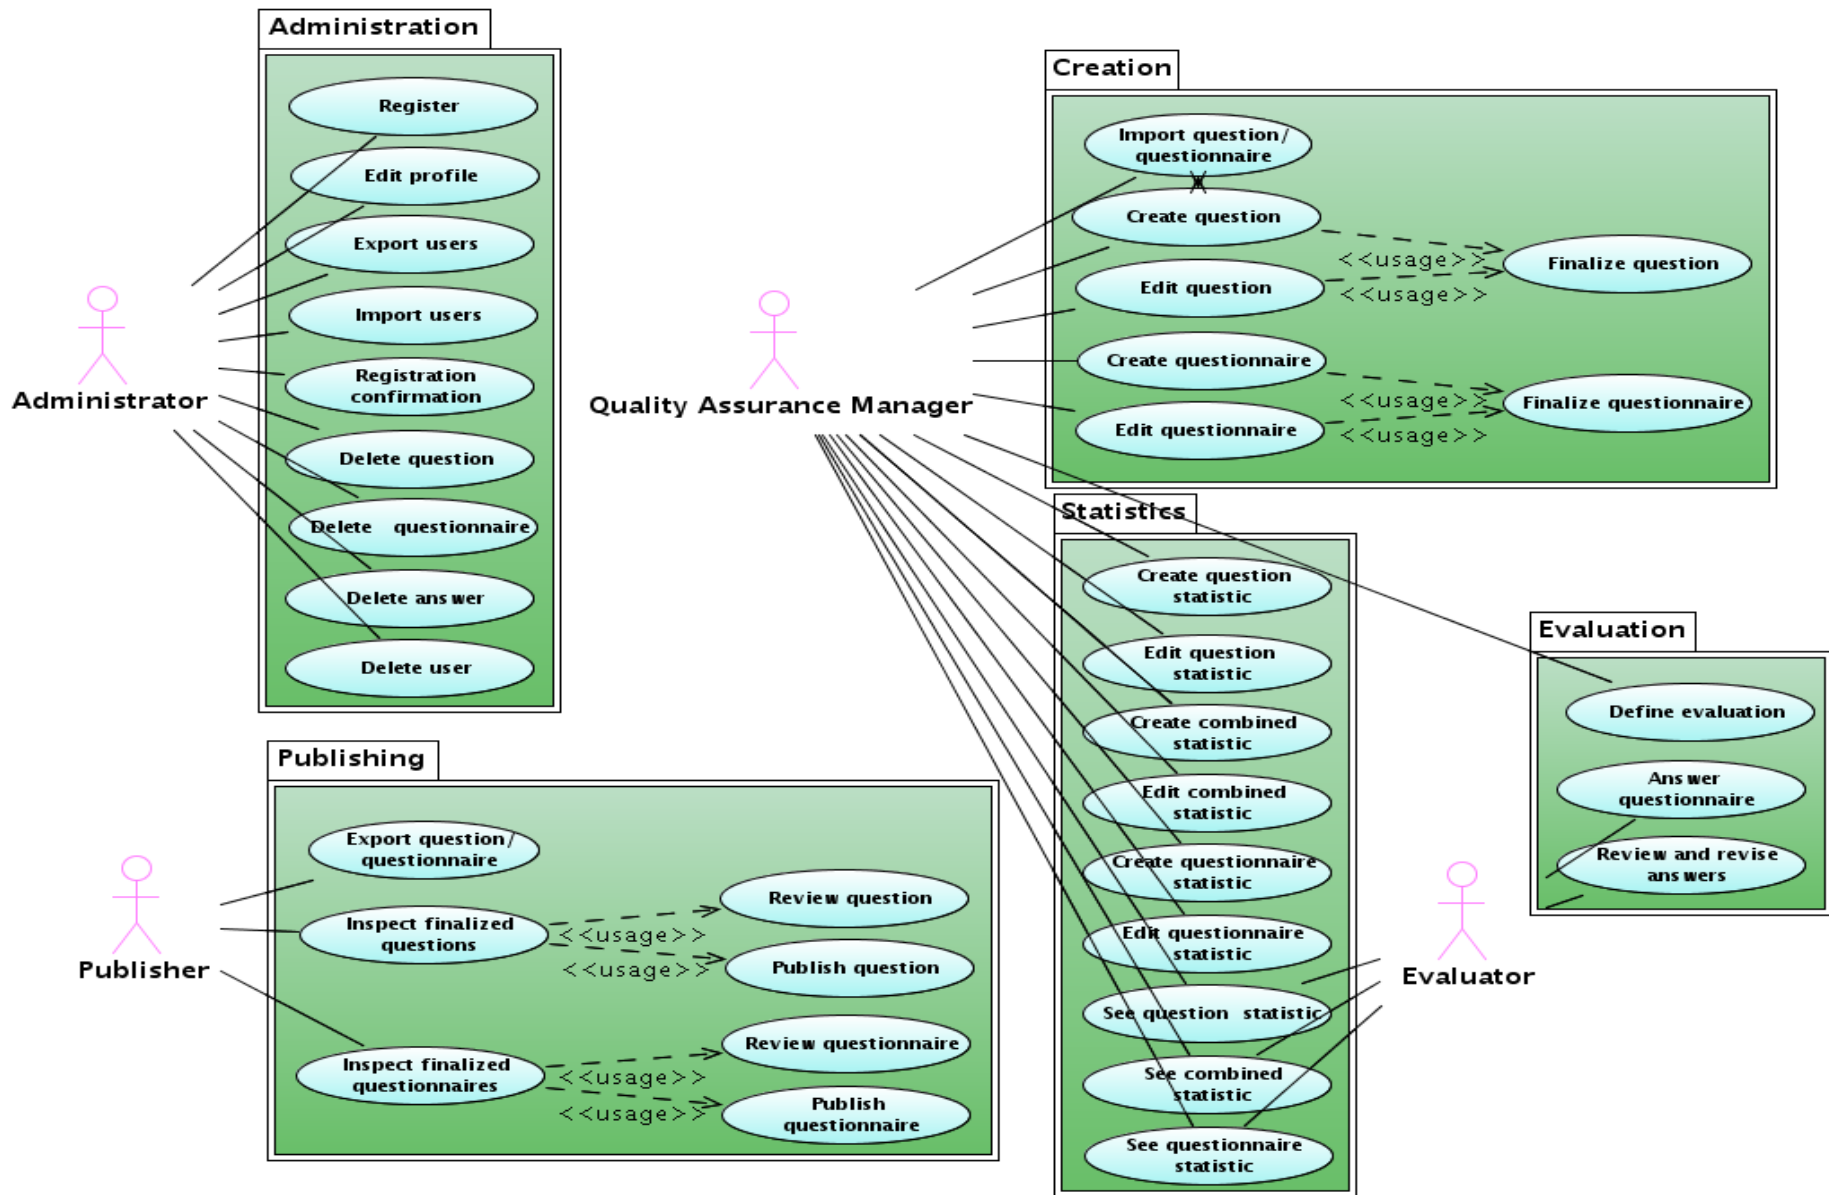

current resource id launched and being displayed by the LMS

User roles

- User roles with respect to the quality assurance
 - Administrator (responsible for the administration of the system)
 - Import/export user profiles
 - Create new user accounts
 - Remove users and remove data (such as questionnaires and answers) that are not valid
 - Quality Assurance Manager (responsible for defining quality assurance related objects)
 - Create questions and questionnaires including 'profile' questions and questionnaires
 - Create statistical indicators
 - Definition of parameters for evaluations (questionnaires to be used, Evaluators to be engaged etc.)
 - Publisher (mediates between Quality Assurance Managers and Evaluators)
 - Review questions and questionnaires created by Quality Assurance Managers
 - Publish questions and questionnaires them to be used by Evaluators
 - Evaluator (responsible for the evaluation of certain training materials)
 - Give answers to appropriate questionnaires after reviewing the corresponding training material

Use case diagram

Detailed description of use cases

- First version in WP2 report
- Revised in the context of WP3
- Internal actors:
 - Evaluation Component Interface (ECI)
 - Evaluation Component Repository (ECOR)
- Primary/Secondary actors:
 - Administrator
 - Quality Assurance Manager
 - Publisher
 - Evaluator
- Main success scenario
- Extensions